2018

INDIAN FINANCIAL SYSTEM – HONOURS

Paper : CC-3.2 Ch
Full Marks : 80

The figures in the margin indicate full marks.
Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

Group - A

1. Distinguish between primary and secondary capital markets.
2. Write a note on ‘Book-Building method’.
   Or,
   Briefly discuss the various methods of making a new issue in the capital market.
3. What are the functions of a commercial bank?
4. Distinguish between open-ended and close-ended mutual fund schemes.
   Or,
   What do you mean by NBFCs? Briefly mention the important functions of NBFCs in India.

Group - B

5. Explain the significance of the financial system of a country. Identify the components of a financial system.
6. (a) Explain the concept of Repo and Reverse Repo.
   (b) Write a short note on Treasury Bill market in India.
   Or,
   Discuss the recent trends in the Indian money market.
7. Write short notes on:
   (a) Role of Stock Exchanges
   (b) Functions of brokers in the stock market.

Please Turn Over
8. Discuss the various methods of credit control of the Reserve Bank of India.

Or,

Write short notes on:
(a) Functions of EXIM Bank
(b) Role of NABARD.

9. What do you mean by credit-rating? Mention the full names of two credit rating agencies operating in India. Discuss the importance of credit rating.

10. Explain the role of SEBI in respect of investors’ protection.

Or,

(a) Explain the concept of investors’ protection.
(b) Discuss the role of media in investors’ protection.