The candidates whose registration are approved and registration numbers assigned may fill in the online CU exam form and submit to the College office. Please follow the College notice in our website (by choosing the CU Examination tab).

The candidates whose registration are still blocked may not be able to sit for the CU semester exam unless their block is removed within the next two or three days. Thus, they should report at the College office on Wednesday (03.03.2021) with all relevant original documents and have the errors rectified. Those who are outstation candidates (as per local or permanent address) may send scanned copy or copies of relevant original document(s) (in jpg format, size 35-45 kb for photo and signature and 80-90 kb for marksheet and caste certificate) to cityreg2020@gmail.com by 03.03.2021. The copies should be of the proper size and present a clear impression.

Late or incorrect response will lead to continued blockage of registration application and debarment from sitting in the CU examination. The College shall take no responsibility in such cases.
