HIS-H/CC 1 : History of India From the earliest times to C 300 BCE

Learning Objectives:

This course intends to provide an extensive and deeper understanding of early Indian history to students. They will be introduced to the manner in which diverse aspects of ancient Indian history have been recovered from a rich variety of sources, archaeological, literary, numismatic, epigraphist. Students will become familiar with the tools required for studying history and explore the diverse histories and regional variations in the Indian subcontinent and also study various facets of ancient India- social, cultural, political, environmental concerns. This course, with an interdisciplinary approach, will help students' trace elements of continuity and changes in processes spanning over several millennia, from pre-historic times up to the 300 BCE. The emphasis on historiography will allow students to understand how historians have approached ancient India and how our present knowledge and perceptions have played a role in interpreting the past.

I. Reconstructing Ancient Indian History:

- a) Early Indian notions of history and the idea of Bharat
- b) Sources and tools of historical reconstruction.
- c) Historical interpretations (with special reference to gender, environment, technology and regions)

II. Hunter-gatherers and the advent of food products

- a) Paleolithic cultures- sequence and distribution; stone industries and other technological developments.
- b) Mesolithic cultures – regional and chronological distribution; new developments in technology and economy; rock art.
- c) Neolithic and Chalcolithic cultures: distribution and subsistence pattern

III. The Harappan civilization:

Origins; settlement patterns and town planning; agrarian base; craft productions and trade; social and political organization; religious beliefs and practices; art; the problem of urban decline and the late/post-Harappan traditions.

IV. Cultures in transition

Settlement patterns, technological and economic developments; social stratification; political relations; religion and philosophy; the Aryan problem.

- a) North India (circa 1500 BCE – 300 BCE)
- b) Central India and the Deccan (circa 1000 BCE – circa 300 BCE)
- c) Tamilakam (circa 300 BCE to circa CE 300)

HIS- H CC-14 : History of World Politics: 1945-1994

Learning Objectives: This course seeks to delineate some important aspects of the twentieth-century world highlighting the impact of a shift from Eurocentric to ideologically polarized Super Power centric politics. It thus focusses on world politics in the post war period that saw a new type of war as manifested in the Cold war. Students will also get to know how nationalism, a core issue of 20th century contemporary world history, triggered national liberation movements that saw the emergence of the Third World on the one hand as well as the end of the Cold war on the other- culminating in the rise of a unipolar world system.

1. Bipolarism and Debates on the origins of the Cold War –Yalta and Potsdam Conference
2. The USA in World Politics: Truman Doctrine, Marshall Plan, NATO.
3. The USSR in World Politics: Molotov Plan, COMECON, Sovietisation of Eastern Europe, Berlin Blockade, Warsaw Pact.
4. Manifestation of Cold War: The Korean Crisis, end of French Colonial rule in Indo-China and the Vietnam War, Cuban Missile Crisis
5. Emergence of the Third World World and Non –Aligned Movement
6. De-Stalinisation and its aftermath in the East European Countries, Détente-Thaw in Cold War.
7. Impact of the emergence of Peoples’ Republic of China on World Politics: Sino-Soviet and Sino –USA relations (1950’s-1970’s)
8. Emergence of Independent Nations in Asia and Africa: Algeria, Kenya Bangladesh.
9. West Asian Crisis: Birth of Israel, Arab-Israel conflict(1948-1973)Camp David Accord(1978).
10. Disintegration and Decline of the Soviet Union: Glasnost, Perestroika,,Crisis of Socialist Regimes in other socialist countries(Reunification of Germany, Velvet Revolution in Czechoslovakia), End of Cold War and the Rise of a Unipolar World System, Globalisation since 1990s.
11. Protest Politics: Civil Rights Movement and Second Wave Feminist Movement in the USA, End of Anti-Apartheid Movement in South Africa (1994).

MINOR COURSES m1 in detail

HIS m1- CC1 : History of India From the earliest times to C 300 BCE

Learning Objectives:

This course intends to provide an extensive and deeper understanding of early Indian history to students. They will be introduced to the manner in which diverse aspects of ancient Indian history have been recovered from a rich variety of sources, archaeological, literary, numismatic, epigraphist. Students will become familiar with the tools required for studying history and explore the diverse histories and regional variations in the Indian subcontinent and also study various facets of ancient India-social, cultural, political, environmental concerns. This course, with an interdisciplinary approach, will help students' trace elements of continuity and changes in processes spanning over several millennia, from pre-historic times up to the 300 BCE. The emphasis on historiography will allow students to understand how historians have approached ancient India and how our present knowledge and perceptions have played a role in interpreting the past.

I. Reconstructing Ancient Indian History:

- a) Early Indian notions of history and the idea of Bharat
- b) Sources and tools of historical reconstruction.
- c) Historical interpretations (with special reference to gender, environment, technology and regions)

II. Hunter-gatherers and the advent of food products

- a) Paleolithic cultures- sequence and distribution; stone industries and other technological developments.
- b) Mesolithic cultures – regional and chronological distribution; new developments in technology and economy; rock art.
- c) Neolithic and Chalcolithic cultures: distribution and subsistence pattern

III. The Harappan civilization:

Origins; settlement patterns and town planning; agrarian base; craft productions and trade; social and political organization; religious beliefs and practices; art; the problem of urban decline and the late/post-Harappan traditions.

IV. Cultures in transition

Settlement patterns, technological and economic developments; social stratification; political relations; religion and philosophy; the Aryan problem.

- a) North India (circa 1500 BCE – 300 BCE)
- b) Central India and the Deccan (circa 1000 BCE – circa 300 BCE)
- c) Tamilakam (circa 300 BCE to circa CE 300)

HIS- m1 CC-2 : Social Formations and Cultural Patterns of the ancient world other than India

Learning Objectives:

This course aims to introduce the students to the significant developments in world history that have shaped the complexity of human existence. To begin with it offers a historical survey of human evolution. It details the transition from hunting gathering subsistence pattern to more advanced adaptations to a sedentary farming economy. The course content is premised on the understanding that the pace and nature of change differed in different parts of the ancient world.

Detailed Syllabus for Multi Disciplinary Core Courses in History

HIS_ MD-CC- 1 : History of India From the earliest times to C 300 BCE

Learning Objectives:

This course intends to provide an extensive and deeper understanding of early Indian history to students. They will be introduced to the manner in which diverse aspects of ancient Indian history have been recovered from a rich variety of sources, archaeological, literary, numismatic, epigraphist. Students will become familiar with the tools required for studying history and explore the diverse histories and regional variations in the Indian subcontinent and also study various facets of ancient India-social, cultural, political, environmental concerns. This course, with an interdisciplinary approach, will help students' trace elements of continuity and changes in processes spanning over several millennia, from pre-historic times up to the 300 BCE. The emphasis on historiography will allow students to understand how historians have approached ancient India and how our present knowledge and perceptions have played a role in interpreting the past.

I. Reconstructing Ancient Indian History:

- a) Early Indian notions of history and the idea of Bharat
- b) Sources and tools of historical reconstruction.
- c) Historical interpretations (with special reference to gender, environment, technology and regions)

II. Hunter-gatherers and the advent of food products

- a) Paleolithic cultures- sequence and distribution; stone industries and other technological developments.
- b) Mesolithic cultures – regional and chronological distribution; new developments in technology and economy; rock art.
- c) Neolithic and Chalcolithic cultures: distribution and subsistence pattern

III. The Harappan civilization:

Origins; settlement patterns and town planning; agrarian base; craft productions and trade; social and political organization; religious beliefs and practices; art; the problem of urban decline and the late/post-Harappan traditions.

IV. Cultures in transition

Settlement patterns, technological and economic developments; social stratification; political relations; religion and philosophy; the Aryan problem.
