Report :

18 students registered completed the course on the first come first served basis. In the 10-day course, the learners were very enthusiastic and were exposed to various aspects and tools of Microsoft PowerPoint. All the participants were encouraged to prepare and present their own PowerPoint presentations. There was a continuous evaluation mechanism in the course through which the learners had the opportunity to update and improve themselves. The assessment results were duly analysed. All the participants performed well. They were very satisfied with the course. The resource person and the Principal delivered short speeches at the valedictory session.

Report :

For the course, 20 students registered on the first-come first-served basis. All students completed the course. In the 10-day course, the learners were very enthusiastic and curious to know about the language as it was the first initiative in this college. They learned the elementary French language. On the closing day of the course, a viva and a written test were conducted. All the students scored very well. They were very satisfied with the course. The course Coordinator and the Principal delivered short speeches at the valedictory session.

Report :

20 students registered and all of them duly completed the course. In the span of the 10-day long course, the learners appeared to be very attentive and they thoroughly enjoyed the course. They were exposed to various aspects of effective communication in English. The learners had the opportunity to update and improve themselves through a continuous evaluation mechanism developed by the resource person. The assessment results were duly analysed. Most of the participants performed well. The learners expressed their satisfaction on completion of the course. The resource person and the Principal delivered short speeches At the valedictory session the resource person offered her observations and the Principal issued the certificates with an encouraging address to the participants.

A Brief Course in Communicative English (from 3.12.2019 to 21.12.2019)

Course Structure

Course Duration: 10 days

3 hours/day

	Lessons	Details
Day 1	Introduction	Definition and various modes of communication; the efficacy of English as a universally suitable medium of communication.
Day 2	Self-Introduction by individual participants	Participants would be encouraged to introduce themselves in English; the resource person would point out the areas where improvement is required.
Day 3	See-and-tell	The participants would choose one picture card each from a pack, would describe/comment on that. The resource person would offer rectifications/suggestions.
Day 4	Reporting on events, situations	The participants would be offered hypothetical situations and would elaborate on those or they would describe actual occurrences. The resource person would suggest rectifications and improvements.
Day 5	Extempore speech	The participants would be given random topics on which they would deliver short speeches. The resource person's comments would follow.
Day 6	Group Discussion	The class would be divided into small groups. Each group would discuss the topic offered to it. This interaction would be monitored by the resource person.
Day 7	Debate	The class would be divided into two groups. A topic would be offered by the resource person. The participants would debate on for, or, against the motion. The session would be concluded with the resource person's observations.

Day 8	Mock Interview	A real-time interview situation would be created and the participants would be guided through it. Suggestions of proper body language and dress code would also be suggested.
Day 9	Declaration of assessment results	The participants would be offered detailed report cards with required suggestions from the resource person.
Day 10	Valedictory session	Certificates would be issued; appropriate addresses by the resource person and members of authority.
