Dear Subhadip.....

Date: 27/9/22

The session for the M.A./M.Sc. First Year Class begins on and from 1st November, 2022. You are, therefore, required to reach the Ashrama on 31st October, 2022 between 2.00 p.m. and 5.00 p.m.

Please bring with you your beddings, a mosquito net, utensils for personal use (i.e. a stainless steel plate, a bowl, a glass). You need not bring any bedcover as it will be supplied to you. You should bring an umbrella for rainy days. Regarding dresses please note that the prescribed dress for college use is white trousers (full pant) and white shirt. You can, however, use an alternative dress, a dhoti with a white shirt. For the shrine use, you must have a dhoti and white uttariya (a thin chadar -available at the Ashrama stall). At the Bhavana (Students' home) you will be free to use decent looking trousers (full pant) and shirts of some sober colour. You must have a half pant for games. It is necessary that you come with some essential books and bring sufficient money for buying any other necessities. You should not keep more than Rs. 500/- with you.

Before coming here, you are to have a plain hair-cut. Simple living and high thinking is our basic motto. When you leave your parents and relatives, please do not forget to offer pranams to them and ask reverentially for their blessings and good wishes. You are to enquire at Brahmananda Bhavana, a College Students' Home, for your hostel accommodation. In case of difficulty, you may enquire at the College Officer also. Since you are coming to live in a place of learning, an Ashrama, it will be good if you bring with you a modest offering for the 'Upasana Mandir' (Shrine) of your bhavana. It need not be anything very costly and should consist of some flowers and/or incense sticks, etc.

With love and good wishes,

Yours affectionately,

Erachiswari
