NOW THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE MUTUAL PROMISE SET FORTH IN THIS MoU, THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

Clause-I

COOPERATION

- 1.1 Both the Parties are united by common interest and objectives, and they shall establish channels of communication and cooperation that will promote and advance, to the best efforts and as far as practicable –
- Joint research projects/publications to be pursued.
  - Science and Humanities departments to exchange students for the internship programmes included under NEP. Faculty/Research guides to be shared for the 4th year research project paper for all common departments, as and when necessary.
  - Faculty and student exchange based on reciprocity; e.g., collaborative NSS programmes; collaborative gender sensitisation programmes to be organised.
  - Team taught courses (including online courses).
  - Joint organisation of short-term continuing educational programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculties to participate therein.
  - Collaborative seminars/workshops/conferences/academic enrichment programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty and students to participate therein.
  - Every activity resulting from this MoU is to be implemented via official communication from the Principal of the host Institution. Acknowledgement of the same is to be issued by the Principal of the host Institute to the Resource person after completion of the said program. Geo-tagged photographic record of each activity is to be properly documented by the host Institute and handed over to the other counterpart.
  - Faculties of Parties 1 & 2 to be involved in Classes at each other's institutions for specific modules and in departments where the need has been ascertained by the institutional heads. These classes will be conducted in the Compact Module system where continuous classes will be scheduled in an arrangement for one or two weeks as per the requirements of the syllabus and the students.
  - The list provided above is not exhaustive and that other items or elements, not specifically mentioned, may also be included.
- 1.2 Both the Parties shall keep each other informed of potential opportunities and shall share all information that may be relevant to secure additional opportunities for one another.
- 1.3 The First Party and Second Party must respect each other's intellectual property and in case of disputes, if any, relating to any aspects of academic cooperation, The Heads of both the Colleges will jointly resolve the dispute in a spirit of independence, mutual respect and shared responsibility.
- 1.4 Both the Parties mutually agree not to include any financial transaction during the execution of this MoU.
- 1.5 Neither Party shall be held responsible for non-fulfilment of their respective obligation under this MoU due to circumstances beyond their control but not limited to pandemic, war, flood etc. If such a condition continues beyond six months, the parties shall then mutually decide about the future course of action.
- 1.6 Nothing in this MoU shall be construed to make either party a partner, an agent or a legal representative of the other for any purpose. Now onwards both the parties may mention the name and LOGO of the other in their documents as "COLLABORATOR" for purpose as may be required, subject to communication by the user to the other party in writing beforehand.
