Department of Political Science

Report on: A Virtual Reunion of the students "Surtaranga", dated 16.05.2021

Organized by: Dept. of Political Science, City College

As the students started to exhibit mental fatigue associated with the virtual classes, the department of Political Science hoped to lift their spirits with a virtual reunion of our students where many of them participated actively. Some of the students presented melodious renditions of several Bengali classical songs, while others put their skills in poetry on display. Overall, this was a fruitful endeavor in keeping the students engaged and interested in the subject.
