- SUMMARY: Blood saves lives. There is a plethora of diseases, where the patients need continuous supply of blood. Apart from this, blood may be required during any emergency medical situation like pregnancy, accident etc. It is such a valuable biological product as it can neither be manufactured, nor can be stored for a long time. In the first session of the programme our respected speaker Prof. (Dr) Nirmal Kr. Sarkar explained the scientific basis of blood transfusion and stressed upon the need for arrangement of blood donation camp at regular intervals especially by the college students who can be very eligible volunteers.. In the second session, Mr. Bivash Dutta & Ms. Mitali Das presented a short audio drama named 'Raktadaan' to motivate the audience for participating in a blood donation camp organized by Department of Zoology, City College in Collaboration with Birati Ichhedana Society, Kolkata – 51 on 20.02.22 at Thalassaemic Guardians' Association, 58, Nimtala Ghat Street, Kolkata- 700006.
