Programme Summary:

Believing in a greater cause and fulfilling a greater purpose are considered to be strong morals. Putting these into action, many consider helping others in their own ways. This time of the year, like earlier, just before the puja vacation, we planned for a community outreach program in an attempt to help, uplift, and support those who are deprived of certain services and rights. The Social Service Cell and IQAC of City College, Kolkata, in association with the Rotary Club of Calcutta Metro South, organized a “Sit and Draw Session & Garments Distribution to Needy Children” on October 7, 2023, in the City College campus. The program started with our respected principal's welcome address, followed by other dignitaries associated with the event. Student volunteers of our college did a survey before the event and identified nearly 50 street kids from nearby neighborhoods. They were gathered on campus, accompanied by their parents, on the day of the event. They were provided with drawing materials and encouraged to draw anything they wanted, and the event turned out to be a great success. We were amazed to see that, while the subject varied quite a lot, every kid did a wonderful job out there by putting their thoughts onto the drawing paper. This was followed by the distribution of winter garments and food packets to all those needy kids. It was a great feeling to see these kids' happy faces after they received the food and gift materials, which apparently made our day. That was the least we could do just before the Holi Pujas to bring some smiles to these little kids. It gave us enough motivation to plan for such events in the coming days with more resources and on a larger scale. The program ended with a vote of thanks to the Rotary Club of Calcutta Metro South for being with us in such an endeavor and to all the other people who were involved in different ways to make this program a great success.
